 15 submitted to introduce the response to Interrogatory 3(a). The information in this response does 16 not appear to be confidential, as it contains the name of copyrighted code releases, their release
 17 dates, and their copyright registration numbers. Plaintiffs should not submit any other 18 interrogatory responses if they are not relevant. If the response to Interrogatory 3(a) is not 19 confidential, Plaintiffs should withdraw the request to seal this interrogatory. If Plaintiffs believe 20 this response contains confidential information, they shall submit a declaration explaining why this 21 information is sealable within 5 days of the date of this Order. Otherwise, Plaintiffs' request is 22 granted.
